Child's Name: Layla Morgan DOB: 3/25/2007
Current Caregiver: Josh and Lupe Shanihan Relationship to Child: Foster Parents

The above captioned child has been committed to the care of the Department of Child and Family Services. To assist us in making appropriate plans for this child, please complete the following, attach the child's report card and any other relevant documents, and return in a sealed envelope or to the office designated above.

SCHOOL/DAY CARE REPORT

1. How does the student relate to his/her peers?

Initially, Layla Morgan encountered some challenges in relating to her peers. She was shy, reserved, and did not make eye contact. With the behavior management specialist's assistance and support, this is improving. She is interacting with peers in an increasingly positive manner.

2. Does the student display any emotional and/or behavioral problems?

(X) Yes [If "Yes," is the child known to the Child Study Team, or is a referral in progress/planned?]

She is in therapeutic foster care, and her treatment team is working collaboratively with the school.

() No

3. How does the student relate to teachers and/or administration?

Layla Morgan does well in 1:1 interaction with the teacher. Her interaction with speech and occupational therapy staff is positive.

4. Are the student's grades:

() Below Average (X) Average () Above Average

5. Is the student working to his/her capabilities?

() Yes (X) No

We suspect that Layla's developmental delays and recent traumatic events are negatively affecting school performance and will continue to monitor.

6. Does the child have a satisfactory attendance record?
 Yes No If "No," why not?
7. Have you met the student's parents/caregivers? Yes No
 Are they (he/she) interested in the student? Yes No
 Are they (he/she) cooperative with the school? Yes No
 If No, please explain.
8. Does this child have any disability?
 Yes No If "Yes," please explain.
9. What is the child's personal appearance (clean, dressed appropriately for weather conditions, rested, etc.)?
Layla Morgan comes to school clean and dressed appropriately. She is prepared for school and ready to participate in class.
